천일국이란? Cheon Il Guk National Symbols

| National Flag | 천일국기

천일국기는 천일국 국조이자 참부모님의 상징인 학이 천일국의 영광을 천주에 드리우는 가운데 하나님께서 바라신 창조이상을 중심으로 3대가 참사랑으로 하나되는 참된 가정을 이루고 평화로운 세계를 이룬다는 비전을 담고 있습니다. 기본 색상은 희망찬 미래를 나타내는 파랑색 바탕에 하늘의 신성함을 보여주는 금색으로 천일국의 영광과 희망을 표현하고 있습니다.

The Cheon Il Guk flag expresses the vision of three generations forming a true family united in true love and realizing a peaceful world, centering on the ideal that our Heavenly Parent envisioned at the time of Creation. Two cranes, the national bird of Cheon Il Guk and symbol of True Parents, embrace the cosmos with the glory of Cheon Il Guk. It is colored in blue, representing a hopeful future, and gold, representing the divinity of Heaven. Together they express the glory and hope of Cheon Il Guk.

| National Bird | 국조(학 · Crane)

학은 예로부터 우리민족을 상징하는 영험한 동물로 여겨져 왔으며, 길한 기운과 장수의 상징으로 주로 사용되었다. 임금이 사용하는 여러가지 물품을 장식하는 문양으로도 다양하게 쓰여왔으며, 고귀한 기품과 절개를 표현하기도 한다. 학은 암수 한 쌍 중 어느 한 마리가 죽게 되면 다른 한 마리마저 굶어 죽을 정도로 서로 간의 사랑을 애뜻하게 지켜가는 보기 드문 동물이기도 하다.

천일국의 국조로서의 학은 참아버님의 말씀대로 참사랑, 참가정의 소중함, 상호간의 주고받음 등 우주의 이치를 모두 내포하고 있는 영험한 동물이다. 디자인 적인 측면에서 우리민족의 철학이 담겨있는 태극문양을 학과 절묘하게 조화시켜 음과 양, 불과 물, 남과 여, 수수작용 등 우주와 세상의 모든 이치를 표현하고 있으며, 특히 암수 두 마리의 학이 날개를 활짝 펼쳐 서로를 감싸주고 있는 형태는 참아버님 말씀의 이치를 표현한 것이다.

From long ago, the crane was considered to be a spiritual bird symbolizing the Korean people, and was used as a symbol of good fortune and longevity. Cranes were incorporated into the design of decorations on articles used by the king, as they also represent nobility of purpose and fidelity. Cranes are unique birds that show strong affection for each another to the point that if one mate dies, the remaining one may even starve itself to death.

According to True Father, the crane as the national bird of Cheon Il Guk is a spiritual bird representing the core principles of the universe, such as true love, the preciousness of a true family, and mutual giving and receiving. The Korean taegeuk symbol incorporating the philosophy of the Korean people has been harmonized using the image of cranes to express the core principles of the universe and world, including yang and yin, fire and water, man and woman, and give-and-take action. Notably, the image of male and female cranes, their wings spread in mutual embrace, represents True Parents' core teachings.

장미는 진실한 사랑, 정열, 존경, 조화 등의 다양한 꽃말을 지닌 식물로서 천일국의 상징물로는 남성형에 해당한다. 일반적으로 장미는 붉은색을 상징하지만 천일국의 심볼로서의 장미는 남성을 상징하는 천일국 Blue로 지정하였다.

수수작용 테두리 원 안에 만개한 장미 한송이와 덩굴을 참아버님 말씀에 합당하게 생활하며 본분을 다하는 참가정의 남성을 의미하며, 굳건한 의지를 상징한다.

The rose signifies true love, passion, respect and harmony. It is a masculine icon of Cheon Il Guk. Usually, the rose is associated with the color red, but the rose as a national flower of Cheon Il Guk is depicted in blue, symbolizing masculinity.

The image, within the circular frame of give-and-take action, of a single rose in full bloom and its supporting vine signifies a man from a true family who lives in accordance with True Parents' teachings and accomplishes his duties, and symbolize his firm resolve.

| National Flower | 국화(백합 · Lily)

백합은 순결, 숭고, 깨끗함, 순수한 여인 등의 다양한 꽃말을 지닌 식물로서 천일국의 상징물로는 여성형에 해당한다. 일반적으로 백합은 상징적인 흰색으로 표현되지만 천일국의 심볼로서의 백합은 여성을 상징하는 천일국 Pink로 지정하였다. 수수작용 테두리 원 안에 세상을 정화시키는 백합 한송이와 순결을 상징하는 봉우리, 그리고 꽃을 받치고 있는 줄기는 숭고한 봉사와 희생정신이 깃들어 있으며, 참아버님 말씀에 합당하게 생활하여 언제나 본분을 다하는 참가정의 여성을 의미하고, 순결함을 상징한다.

The lily signifies purity, nobility, and cleanliness, and symbolizes an innocent woman. It is a feminine icon of Cheon Il Guk. Usually, the lily is associated with the color white, but the lily as a national flower of Cheon Il Guk is depicted in pink, symbolizing femininity.

The image, within the circular frame of give-and-take action, of a single lily purifying the world, a bud that symbolizes purity, and their supporting stem expresses noble service and the spirit of sacrifice, signifies a woman from a true family who lives in accordance with True Parents' teachings and fulfills her duties at all times, and symbolizes purity.

| Hyo Jeong | 효정(孝情)

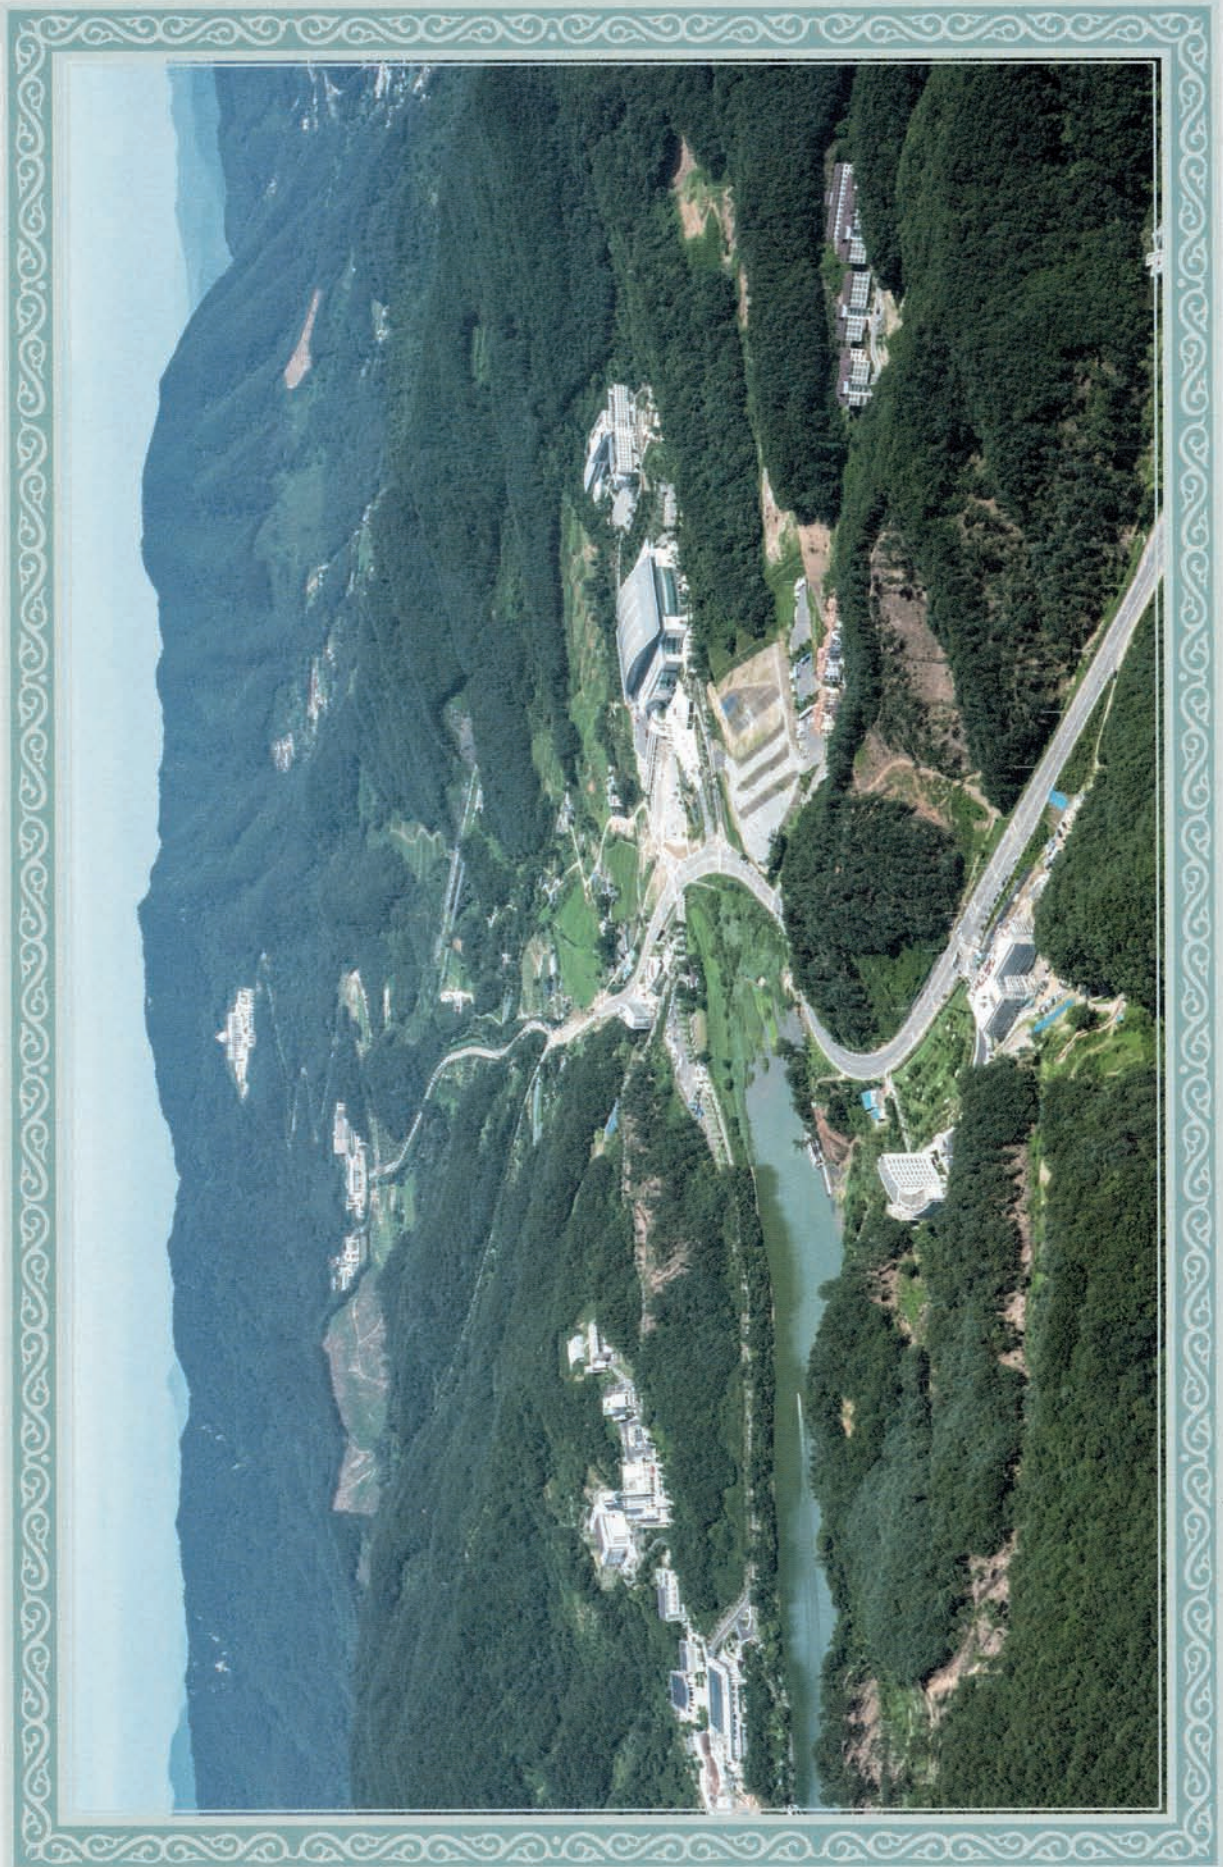

“하나님의 무조건적인 사랑 앞에 자녀 된 인류가 효(孝)의 심정으로 응답하고 한 형제자매로서 정(情)을 나눌 때 비로소 참된 인간 완성의 길로 나아갈 수 있다.”

2017.8.30. 한국프레스센터 효정포럼에서 참어머님 메시지

“When all people respond with a heart of filial piety to God’s unconditional love as His children and share love and affection as brothers and sisters, they can finally follow the path to true human perfection.”

True Parents' Prayer

April 29, 1971

We must understand the preciousness of True Parents' name.

We must always keep in mind that True Parents are the parent body that frees You from Your historical sorrow, the center where humankind's hope is realized,
and the origin of the ideal world.

Therefore, we cannot exchange the True Parents for all of history, for all ages, even for our own families, even for our children.

We should think of True Parents during the day, at night, in solitude, in joy, and even when gazing at heaven and earth.

May Your sons and daughters clearly understand that when, in tears, they come to live with the desperate desire that,
"I wish to live for tens of thousands of years attending our True Parents," and when that life flows into their living environment, not only will countless peoples be touched by it, but all of humanity and all of heaven and earth will also be touched.

Let them clearly realize that a holy and wonderful purpose lies behind it.

Therefore, I earnestly pray and request that they all become Your sons and daughters who go forth with greater, greater, and even greater strength and vigor.

I humbly pray all these things in the holy name of True Parents.

Aju.

Ceremonies for Blessed Families

Note: Dates are marked HC for the Heavenly Calendar or LC for the lunar calendar.

I. Prayer during Childbirth

1. History

The tradition of burning Birth Candles during the delivery of a baby was begun at Ye Jin Nim's birth, January 27, 1961.

2. Preparations

Birth Candle and Birth Matches are used as Cheon Il Guk Holy Items.

3. Significance

We delight in and welcome a new life, and we offer prayer for this birth to take place in a holy atmosphere under the grace of our Heavenly Parent and True Parents.

4. How to Use the Candle

Ideally, have the Cheon Il Guk candle burning for about 10 minutes at the time of the birth (from a few minutes before the birth until a few minutes after). The husband should pray. In the hospital, it is advisable to pray in the delivery room. If no one can pray during the delivery, it should be done conditionally later on, even at home. Several people may also gather and offer joint prayer.

5. Points to Note

In principle, blessed families do not use contraception or abort pregnancies. Depending on the mother's situation, however—for example, if her life is endangered by the pregnancy—the family can discuss the matter with the Family Department and decide a course of action.

II. Eighth-Day Dedication Ceremony

1. History

The eighth-day dedication ceremony was first conducted at the time of Ye-jin nim's birth.

2. Significance

- i. A ceremony to dedicate a child as Heavenly

Parent's child.

- ii. A ceremony in which parents vow to raise their child as a Heavenly citizen centered on the blessed family tradition, with the heart of Heavenly Parent and True Parents.
- iii. A ceremony through which parents express their gratitude to Heavenly Parent for entrusting them with the responsibility of raising His children.

3. Time of the Ceremony

Blessed couples should hold their child's dedication ceremony on the eighth day after birth. If it is not possible to hold this ceremony exactly on the eighth day after birth, parents can choose a numerically good day such as the 21st day or 40th day to conduct the ceremony. However, it is most ideal to have the dedication ceremony on the eighth day.

4. Preparations

- i. Hang a banner on the wall above a simple altar (8th Day Dedication Ceremony for). If possible, this should be on a north-facing wall.
- ii. Prepare a photograph of True Parents.
- iii. Purify the room with holy salt.
- iv. Parents may prepare fruit and other types of food, but this is not essential because the Eighth-day Dedication Ceremony does not require an offering table.
- v. Prepare a Cheon Il Guk candle.
- vi. The couple should wear holy robes.

5. Ceremony Format

- i. Face the altar (both parents).
 - ii. Light the holy candle (either parent).
 - iii. Hold the baby in your arms (both parents). Pray silently as you hold the child.
 - iv. Kneel and slightly raise the baby in offering.
 - v. Place the baby in front of the altar (with his or her head toward the north).
 - vi. Offer one bow.
 - vii. Recite the family pledge.
 - viii. Offer a representative prayer. Either parent may offer the prayer, which should include appealing to Heavenly Parent to accept the child, the parents' determination to raise the child well, both materially and spiritually, centered on God, and for the child to inherit a heavenly character and nature.

- ix. Extinguish the holy candle.

6. Important Points to Note

- i. The parents themselves should conduct the entire ceremony. It is not appropriate to ask an elder blessed couple to conduct the ceremony.
- ii. If one of the parents must be absent, the other parent should conduct the ceremony alone, representing the couple.
- iii. Particularly because the infant is so young, it is not a good idea to invite a large number of people to the Eighth Day Dedication Ceremony. You can invite members of your Blessing trinity or a limited number of close friends.
- iv. The same format should be followed in the event of multiple births. (In this case, each parent holds either one or two babies to make sure all the children are held).

II. Prayer Services on the 40th Day, 103rd Day, and 1st Birthday of a Blessed Child

1. Significance

These can be seen as special services during which parents express their gratitude to our Heavenly Parent for raising the child under His protection, to pray that He will continue to look after the child, and to express their determination to raise the child well.

- ※ The Cheon Il Guk holy candle is to be used on these occasions.

III. Birthday Service for a Blessed Child

1. Significance

This is a service in which a child's parents once more express their gratitude to our Heavenly Parent for protecting their child, and renew their determination to raise the child in accordance with blessed family tradition.

2. Time of the Ceremony

It is recommended to hold the birthday prayer at 7 o'clock in the morning, but you may choose a more convenient time.

3. Ceremony Format

- i. The family sings a holy song in preparation
- ii. They offer one full bow to our Heavenly Parent.
- iii. They recite the Family Pledge.
- iv. The parents then turn and face their child; the father should place his right hand, and the mother her left hand, on the child's head. Either parent, representing the couple, then offers a prayer.
- v. The child does one full bow to his or her parents.
- vi. Both parents feed the child some of the birthday food (e.g. noodles).
- vii. The child cuts the cake.
- viii. The parents present their child with a gift (or gifts).
- ix. The family may take commemorative photos.
- x. A birthday meal is shared.

4. Points to Remember

- i. Single first generation members (who have not received the Blessing) do not need to hold elaborate celebrations on their physical or spiritual birthdays. If possible, it is recommended that they fast on their birthdays for three years in keeping with the tradition True Father established.
- ii. After the Blessing, blessed members can fully celebrate their birthdays.

IV. Eight Major Holy Days

1. Significance

- i. These Holy Days commemorate the fulfillment of missions True Parents had to accomplish.
- ii. Based on these internal celebration days, a new world can take shape, and a new history can begin.
- iii. On the 35th Parents' Day in 1994, True Father directed that the word 'True' be added to the names of all major Holy Days, (True God's Day, True Parents' Day, Day of All True Things, True Children's Day)

2. Preparations

- i. To inherit the heart of Heavenly Parent and True Parents with regard to a particular Holy Day, it is recommended that members offer jeongseong for a minimum of three days prior to each Holy Day and for three days afterwards, in order to prepare their hearts to meet their Heavenly Parent and True Parents.
- ii. It is essential to prepare for a Holy Day through prayer and devotion on the preceding day. It is best to curb feelings of frustration or anger and to not become too involved in secular matters. Focus on cultivating a pure and devotional heart.
- iii. Couples participating in the celebration of Holy Days conducted in True Parents' direct presence (pledge services, etc.), should purify themselves during the three days leading up to the event.

3. Pledge Service

True Parents usually begin a Holy Day pledge service at 7:00 o'clock in the morning. Churches are therefore recommended to also hold their pledge services at 7:00 a.m. on Holy Days.

4. Commemorative Service

A Holy Day service usually begins at 10:00 o'clock in the morning.

5. Cultural Evening

It is appropriate to hold a celebration or entertainment in commemoration of the Holy Day.

6. Significance of Each Holy Day

The names and significance of each Holy Day are as follows:

Moreover, original nature was restored, the realm of the deep heart was restored, Cain's realm was liberated, the unity of the whole and the authority of the clan was restored. It was on this foundation that blessed families could begin their Tribal Messiah course. From 2010, Chil Il (7.1) Jeol has been celebrated on 7.1 by the heavenly calendar.

Through a message entitled, "The Ideal Family is Our Heavenly Parent's Resting Place," True Father encouraged all members to use the victorious foundation of the 3.6 Million-Couple Blessing to bring about the firm settlement of the world under Heaven's sovereignty by successfully blessing a further 36 million couples, and finally 360 million couples.

From 2010, Chil Pal (7.8) Jeol has been celebrated on 7.7 by the heavenly calendar.

※ Anniversary of True Father's Holy Ascension (Seonghwa)

i. Date of True Father's Holy Ascension

7.17 by the heavenly calendar in the 3rd year of Cheon-gi (Sep.3, 2012)

ii. Significance

The Lord of Truth, Holiness and Virtue in Cheon Il Guk; King of Ten Thousand Victories for All People – the True Father of Heaven, Earth and Humankind – victoriously concluded his providential earthly life and at 01:54 a.m. on 7.17 (HC) in the 3rd year of Cheon-gi, and ascended to Heaven at the age of 93 [by Korean age]. During the Ipjeon Ceremony, the day before the Seonghwa Ceremony, True Mother resolved the following: "I will work until my last breath to establish a flourishing Cheon Il Guk on this earth." It was with this determination that Mother presided over True Father's Universal Seonghwa Ceremony on 7.29 by the heavenly calendar (Sep. 15) at the Cheongshim Peace World Center.

During True Father's Seonghwa Ceremony, which was webcast live, the entire Unification movement reflected on True Father's teachings, love and life's work, and resolved to firmly establish Cheon Il Guk in accordance with his life and teachings.

After the Seonghwa Ceremony, True Father's holy body was moved to Bonhwangwon at Cheon Jeong Gung. There, he was interred during a moving Wonjeon Ceremony. True Father's Seonghwa Ceremony and Wonjeon Ceremony were held 13 days after his Ascension [by Korean counting].

For the following three years, True Mother offered devotions in remembrance at True Father's graveside at Bonhyangwon. On that foundation, True Mother passed on to us the tradition and culture of hyojeong (filial heart) for Heaven. For this precise reason, beginning from the 4th anniversary of True Father's Holy Ascension, True Mother began holding True Father's Holy Ascension anniversary as a Seonghwa Festival.

※ Cheon Il Guk Foundation Day

i. Established on 1.13 by the Heavenly calendar in the founding year of Cheon Il Guk (Feb. 22, 2013)

ii. Significance

The Cheon Il Guk Foundation Day (Foundation Day) was proclaimed on 1.13 (HC) in the 1st year of Cheon Il Guk, 13 years after the Enthronement Ceremony for God's Kingship, and marked the beginning of the new history of the substantial Cheon Il Guk. From a providential point of view, Foundation Day was a historic and joyful day that could finally be celebrated after 6,000 years of history. On this day, the Cheon Il Guk Coronation of the True Parents of Heaven, Earth, and Humankind, who have completed, concluded and perfected the entire providence of restoration, and who have attained complete unity with our Heavenly Parent, was held, and the heavenly royal seal, the Holy Scripture of Cheon Il Guk, and the heavenly royal scepter – items representing their sovereignty and authority – were dedicated, Cheon Il Guk, the Cosmic Nation of Peace and Unity, was proclaimed centered on the Coronation held on this day. Finally, the Cheon Il Guk Foundation Day Registration Blessing Ceremony was conducted for all blessed families in heaven and on earth, who became citizens of Cheon Il Guk.

In attendance of True Mother who is harmoniously one in heart, body, and mindset with True Father in Heaven, and guiding us at the front line of the providence, the Unification Movement is advancing and working toward the accomplishment of the divine work of restoring nations by the coming year, 2020, which is the year we will celebrate True Father's 100th birthday.

V. The Seonghwa Ceremony

1. Significance

A plant requires a period of growth to germinate from a seed, put forth leaves, come into flower, and bear ripe fruit.

According to the Principle, the process of germinating, growing shoots and leaves, flowering and then bearing fruit is the course of growth we must pass through in this earthly world, and is fundamental to our life. Once this fruit has ripened, it is stored in an eternal warehouse. It is to such a place that a person of perfected character (divine spirit) migrates—the kingdom of heaven in the next world. Our ultimate goal is to live in eternal joy in that kingdom of heaven, the original world Heavenly Parent envisioned from the time of the Creation. As people who understand the spirit world and that we are beings of eternal life, we see a person's ascension to the heavenly realms not as something to feel sad or anxious about, but as their birth into a new world and new life.

The spirit world is not only a higher plane of existence than the earthly world, it is also the world of original substance. Hence, when someone departs this life, we think of them as returning to the original holy world where they can live harmoniously. This is why we use the term seonghwa (聖和, holy harmony) to refer to a person's departure from this life, and call the funeral a Seonghwa Ceremony. The Seonghwa Ceremony is generally not a sad occasion but a bright and hopeful one.

2. Seonghwa(departing this life)

- i. A person should formalize a will before his or her ascension. A farewell service is held to celebrate his or her transition.
- ii. The church leader, district leader, and national FFWPU headquarters (Family Department) need to be informed of the person's ascension.
- iii. A suitable place for memorial services is prepared.
- iv. In an atmosphere of vigil and prayer, prayer services are held every three hours.

3. Ipjeon Ceremony(placing the body in the coffin)

- i. This is conducted at least 24 hours after the person's ascension.
- ii. After the body is washed and dressed in seonghwa attire (holy robe), it is placed in the coffin.
- iii. The Ipjeon service is conducted.

4. Sang Ceremony

- i. After the Ipjeon ceremony, a meal is offered to the ascended person (three meals may also be offered).
- ii. It is recommended to offer the meal at 7 a.m.

5. Gihwan Ceremony(returning home)

Farewell greetings by the immediate family, trinity members and close friends may be offered at home or at the memorial (funeral) chapel before leaving for the Seonghwa Ceremony venue. The Gihwan ceremony is not held as a separate ceremony if these are the same place.

6. Seonghwa Ceremony

- i. The Seonghwa Ceremony is the central rite of passage for someone who has ascended. Seonghwa Ceremonies are usually determined to be church-level, district-level, national-level, or world-level. The service usually includes a review of the ascended person's life, a brief sermon, offering of flowers in tribute, a prayer of blessing and one or more eulogies. Information on all aspects of the Seonghwa tradition is available from Regional or International Blessed Family Departments.

- ii. Prior to the Seonghwa Ceremony, visitors paying respects to the ascended person will offer a bow, and place a flower or incense on the prepared altar.
- iii. The Seonghwa Ceremony may be simplified as required.

7. Wonjeon Ceremony

- i. The Wonjeon Ceremony returns the body to the elements from which it originated. This is usually by burial or cremation. Cremation is now common in many parts of the world, and is acceptable for a blessed family member (though the Cheongpyeong Training Center advises special prayers be offered).
- ii. At a burial, a simple service is conducted at the graveside with a holy song, prayer and a short sermon. After the coffin is lowered into the ground, relatives and friends may drop flowers on top of it and then take turns to sprinkle soil with a shovel.

8. Purification Ceremony

After participating in a regular funeral, members should purify themselves with holy salt and step over a small fire three times. However, there is no need for such purification after participating in a Seonghwa Ceremony held for a blessed member.

The Meaning of Cheon Jeong Gung Moshim Membership

The era of True Parents in Cheon Jeong Gung began with the Cheon Jeong Gung Entrance Ceremony and the Coronation of True Parents as the King and Queen of Peace in Heaven and Earth. Moshim Membership allows us to serve True Parents directly, and have the experience of complete unity with them during this very time when True Parents are actually living on the earth and residing with God in the holy ground of Cheon Jeong Gung.

“Directly attending True Parents has special value. It is a benefit of living in this time, one’s honor and pride. In past times, no one had the opportunity to directly attend the returning Messiah. People have lived their lives under the inheritance of the fallen lineage. However, now they have paid indemnity in the course of restoration and attended True Parents and God with their physical bodies, which even Adam and Eve were unable to do. Through these conditions, people can attain the qualifications to enter heaven.”

(True Father, April 15, 1961)

Attending the substantial True Parents directly has special meaning: “Why do you need to attend True Parents? It is because they represent the heavenly realm and represent God. Even if you could not become a filial child to the parents of all creation, to the parents who gave birth to you, and in front of the spirit world and God, through attending True Parents you will be able to attain the qualification to be a child of filial piety.”

(True Father, September 30, 1997)

We sincerely and deeply appreciate your participation in serving True Parents through Cheon Jeong Gung Moshim Membership in Cheon Il Guk era.

Cheon Jeong Gung Moshim Members’ Life of Jeongseong

1. Prayer Jeongseong

Moshim Members offer special prayers for True Parents’ protection and support on daily basis in their life of faith. This is a foundation to deeply connect to Heavenly Parent’s and True Parents’ heart and to establish substantial attitude of attendance.

2. Donation Jeongseong

The Moshim Membership donation money is offered directly to True Parents. This constitutes the historic and eternally recorded jeongseong of blessed families in direct attendance of True Parents. The funds are moreover used to preserve and develop the Cheon Jeong Gung holy ground, at which is located True Father’s holy tomb.
